

The South Carolina Association of Legal Investigators (SCALI) will present its 14th Annual Basic Training for PI's program on Monday January 6, 2014 at the Embassy Suites in Columbia, South Carolina.

This one-day program is designed for newly registered Private Investigators, Legal Investigators and those interested in becoming a Private Investigator.

The program provides attendees with an understanding of the laws that regulate Private Investigators in South Carolina; the basics of surveillance; how to run a PI business, Process Service, interviewing techniques, basics of digital forensics, accident investigation, photography, videography and an overview of what to expect as a Private Investigator. Instructors are experienced SCALI members with over 140 years of combined investigative experience.

Attendees earn four (4) SLED given hours and three (3) SLED approved hours for a total of seven (7) hours of Continuing Education credits.

SCALI is a non-profit organization designed to educate and promote matters of interest to South Carolina's Private and Legal Investigators.
