

CLAY BOSWELL

Clay Boswell is a South Carolina Licensed Private Investigator and Digital Forensics Examiner with Carolina Computer Forensics, LLC. With more than 16 years of experience in the field of digital forensics, Mr. Boswell's services have been utilized in many settings including corporate investigations, criminal defense and other civil matters in eight US States and seven international locations. He has been qualified as an expert witness in digital, computer and mobile forensics in multiple South Carolina and US Federal courts.

Mr. Boswell has written, lectured and provided training to a variety of audiences related to digital and computer forensics topics. He is a member of the International Information Systems Security Certification Consortium, the Consortium of Digital Forensic Specialists, the Global Information Assurance Center Advisory Board, the South Carolina Association of Legal Investigators, and the FBI's InfraGard program.

Mr. Boswell currently holds 20 licenses or industry-recognized certifications related to Digital Forensics or Information Security including certified as a Digital Forensics Certified Practitioner, (ISC) 2 Certified Information Systems Security Professional, (ISC) 2 Certified Cyber Forensics Professional, GIAC Certified Forensics Analyst and is currently pursuing additional certifications. Additionally, Mr. Boswell is a South Carolina State Law Enforcement Division (SLED) Private Investigator Continuing Education Provider and recipient of the Boy Scouts of America Eagle Scout Award.