

SCALI Awards Criteria

INVESTIGATOR OF THE YEAR: This award is given to recognize an individual who has demonstrated significant achievement in SCALI and enhancing the investigative profession.

Eligibility: A nominee must be a licensed Private Investigator and a member in good standing of SCALI for at least three (3) consecutive years. The member has demonstrated active participation in the community setting, leadership qualities, and demonstrated active participation in the growth of the profession.

ED FEWELL WHO'S WHO AWARD: This award honors the memory of a dedicated Private Investigator and is bestowed upon a member in recognition for their dedication to the industry and for outstanding contributions to the field of private investigations.

Eligibility: A nominee must be a member in good standing and have been a SCALI member for a minimum of five (5) consecutive years. This individual will have demonstrated his/her knowledge of the private investigative industry by mentoring and networking with other SCALI members and licensed investigators. This nominee will have shown a consistent pattern with participation in SCALI functions. This nominee will have set a high standard for professionalism and will have exhibited other intangible qualities such as leadership, enthusiasm, motivation and community involvement.

2019 Awards Committee:

Jon Tuck – Chair

1. Brian Setree

2. Ruth Reynolds

3. Jason Alexander

4. Bush Banton

Please see the attached Awards Nomination form.