

Audra R. Coleman
Founder and CEO of Cameo Investigations LLC.

Audra has been a North Carolina Professional Licensed Private Investigator for 28 years while owning and operating Cameo Investigations LLC. She is native of North Carolina.

Audra's expertise includes working closely with fortune 500 Companies, all levels of law enforcement, Insurance companies, Attorney's, Government agencies, financial institutions, and small start-up companies. Audra has worked in consulting, educating, and training of other professionals in the fields of fraud investigations, human trafficking, kidnapping, child abduction, cold-case homicides, drug trafficking, and fugitive locates.

Hard locates and investigations are Audra's passion. Audra enjoys a good challenge. Cameo Investigations is a full service agency covering all of NC for Surveillance, process serving, etc. Cameo specializes in Skip tracking and Hard locates.

Audra holds certifications in Body Language, Face Reading, and Life Coaching. Audra received an advanced certification in Face Reading in Fort Worth, TX and has been professionally practicing these techniques for over 5 years. Face reading has allowed me to connect with many people on different levels, no matter your age, nationality, gender, or profession.

Audra has served on many state and national board of directors associations over the years. She is proactive in legislative challenges on a local and national level to protect our professional ability to conduct investigations.